DETAILED ACTION

1. The claims that were furnished in double column format on 12/21/2001 are not the claims of the patent for which the reissue is requested. Applicants are requested to refurnish the claims of the patent in the form of double column format.

Applicants are also requested to provide a copy of the terminal disclaimer filed in the patent. 37 CFR 1.131(a)(1).

2. The reissue oath/declaration filed with this application is defective because it fails to contain a statement that all errors which are being corrected in the reissue application up to the time of filing of the oath/declaration arose without any deceptive intention on the part of the applicant. See 37 CFR 1.175 and MPEP § 1414.

The statement that "these errors arose without any deceptive intention" only refers to those at least errors, and thus is insufficient.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.175(b)(1), a supplemental reissue oath/declaration under 37 CFR 1.175(b)(1) must be received before this reissue application can be allowed.

3. Claims 1-12 are rejected as being based upon a defective reissue declaration under 35 U.S.C. 251 as set forth above. See 37 CFR 1.175.

The nature of the defect(s) in the reissue declaration is set forth in the discussion above in this Office action.

Receipt of an appropriate supplemental oath/declaration under 37 CFR 1.175(b)(1) will overcome this rejection under 35 U.S.C. 251. An example of acceptable language to be used in the supplemental oath/declaration is as follows:

"Every error in the patent which was corrected in the present reissue application, and is not covered by a prior oath/declaration submitted in this application, arose without any deceptive intention on the part of the applicant."

4. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

As per claim 1, The recitations that "said internal core component comprising, except for a display, all the components of a conventional computer", lines 2-4, and "said core devoid of any peripheral ports", lines 11-12, are contradicted since peripheral ports are also components of conventional computers. Further, because of the contradicted recitations, and/or because the components and the numbers of components in conventional computers are not unique, it is indefinite as to what are required by the claim to be included in and excluded from the claimed internal core components in the housing. Claims 9-12 also have similar problems. In addition, it is indefinite as to what it means the phrase "different type and enclosures" in the recitation "said core computer unit having means to be used interchangeably with a plurality of different type and enclosures", lines 20-21.

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
